“MacBeth” Concerts to Continue!

Since July 2000, Mac Passano and Beth Howe have been the real stars of the Free Concert Fund, ever ready to engage, host and manage all of the details that make each concert possible. This year they have “passed the baton” to a new team of music lovers who hope to bring many more concerts to Chebeague. Carl Tubbesing heads this up, supported by Phil Jordan, Barrie Shepherd, Linda White, Steve Harris, John Howard and Adele Gorody. Here’s what’s already in the works:

TYLER PUTNAM, SARAH NORDIN & FRIENDS in our season opener! Opera and show tunes at their best! Tyler Putnam, bass; Sarah Nordin, mezzo-soprano; Holly Flack, coloratura soprano and Richard Cordova, pianist.

THE NOVEL JAZZ SEPTET

“Keeping the music of Duke and Billy Strayhorn alive and swinging.” Sifting through the massive archive of compositions by Duke Ellington and Billy Strayhorn, these cats reinterpret some of jazz’s most precious gems with a with a 21st century sound. Herb Maine, bass; Bill Manning, drums; David Clarke, guitar; Barney Balch tenor, alto and soprano trombone; Mike Mitchell, trumpet, cornet and flugelhorn; Mickey Felder, piano and David Harris, alto sax.

SEBAGO-LONG LAKE CHAMBER ENSEMBLE

performs its 19th chamber music concert on Chebeague. Led by classical pianist, Mihae Lee. The program features compositions by Beethoven, the quintessential Classical composer, and Brahms, the quintessential Romantic, plus a work by a gifted woman who shared both of their visions—Louise Farrenc’s Trio for flute, Cello, and Piano, which gracefully melds Classical form with a flair for the Romantic. Susan Rotholz, flute; Amy Schroeder, violin; Sinno Matthew, viola; Eliot Bailen, cello and Bonnie Thron, cello.

KIM NAZARIAN & FAMILY and THE PAUL ENGLISH QUARTET in a DOUBLE CONCERT.

Multiple Grammy Award winning artists Kim Nazarian (of the New York Voices) and husband, Jay Ashby, with son, Ian Ashby, join Houston’s jazz icon, Paul English for an evening of jazz and Latin standards, plus tunes from the American Songbook and original compositions from each of these artists. The two separate sets are designed to create an unforgettable entertainment experience! Kim Nazarian, jazz vocals; Jay Ashby, trombone/percussion; Ian Ashby, bass; Paul

English, piano; special guest, Mari Black, violin; David Clarke, guitar Herb Maine, bass and Bill Manning, drums.

Don’t miss Sunday’s Bossa Nova Service at CUMC. Both Kim and Jay are known for their interpretation of this genre and their knowledge of Portuguese. Composer Paul English has created special arrangements of original hymns and accompaniment for the CUMC choir to lead the congregation and back up Kim’s vocals!

DIANE WALSH PIANO RECITAL

An esteemed artist of distinction, this American pianist is regularly heard in recital, chamber music and concert performances world-wide. We’re delighted and fortunate she’s returning to Chebeague.

THE SEASIDE BRASS QUINTET

Engaging selections from jazz to classical music. Catriona Shepherd and Don Strickland, trumpet; Yvonne Mumme, French horn; Meg Hausman, trombone and Mark Mumme, tuba.

Halcyon String Quartet, based in Maine, this chamber ensemble, performs a range of music from classical to traditional folk tunes using music and the arts to promote environmental stewardship.

Josie Davis, violin; Sophie Davis, violin; Colin Wheatly, viola and Ju-Young Lee, cello
