

Anthony Gomez:

Born, March 13, 1970 on Chebeague Island. He has been carving since he was able to have a jackknife. He started Duck carving and creations when he was about seventeen.

He uses all kinds of wood including pine, cedar, basswood, red mahogany, and whatever works and is available. His hand painted, varnished, wood burned unique carvings are extremely popular on Chebeague and throughout the country.

His tools of the trade

Chebeague Island Artisan, whose works are popular by collectors everywhere

Hand Carvings by Anthony Gomez

Anthony Gomez
19 Capps Road
Chebeague Island, ME 04017

(207) 846-4110

Hand Carvings by Anthony Gomez

Anthony's signature on the bottom of his carvings add to his style.

Boats

Boat carving has become another one of Anthony's creative outlets. Recently presenting 99 year old Ray Hamilton with a carving called "Ray and Me"

